STARR COUNTY APPRAISAL DISTRICT
PLAN OF ACTION – CORONAVIRUS (Covid-19)
NOTICE TO PUBLIC

Increased and continuing Professional Health and medically related advisories which are designed to promote human safety and prevent and minimize exposure to Coronavirus (Covid-19) through eliminating all unnecessary interpersonal human contact, the following advisory is announced and implemented.

EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY AND UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE, THE STARR COUNTY APPRAISAL DISTRICT LOBBY HOURS ARE CLOSED TO ALL IN-PERSON TRANSACTIONS.

Property owners are encouraged to conduct any Starr County Appraisal District related business via phone, e-mail, online portals or dropping off paperwork in the secure drop box maintained outside the Starr County Appraisal building.

To minimize human proximity and contact, our office will be operated by a rotating skeleton crew and remaining employees will be given telework opportunities. The preferred method of communication is phone contact.

Your patience and understanding are appreciated as we adjust our roles in providing you well deserved and efficient public service and we move forward while we all do our vital parts to protect the health of each other and of our greater community.

Respectfully,

Rosalva Guerra, Chief Appraiser
