

Attention Property Owners...

We warn home owners against solicitors who offer to file a “designation of homestead” on their behalf for a fee. District advises property owners to be extremely careful, and encourage them to contact the Appraisal District before responding to any such offer.